

Word Groups

Sometimes it is useful to put words into groups.

For example:

Things that give light: fire, sun, candle, lantern, lamp.

Sort the following words into four groups.

tea skirt daisies face milk shirt buttercups feet jumper hands water roses jacket legs coffee daffodils

1. drinks 2. clothing 3. flowers 4. body parts

.....
.....
.....
.....

Write five sentences using some of the words from the lists above.

Make up some word lists of your own.

Make a list of

1. five things you would normally find in a classroom.
2. five things you might find in a kitchen.
3. five things you might find in a garden.
4. five things you like to eat.

Make a menu for one day with your favourite food for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Write a shopping list of the things you will need to buy to make the meals on your menu.