

Here, there and everywhere

The words there and where contain the word here. These words usually relate to place.

For example: "Where shall I put these plants, here or there?" asked the gardener.

Copy out the sentences below putting in the missing words.

1. "..... can I go to eat my packed lunch?" asked the new pupil.
2. "Come at once," said Mary's mother.
3. "..... is a boat on the river," said the boy.
4. "..... is your homework?" said the teacher.
5. "..... is no need to make such a fuss," said the dentist.
6. "Leave your coat on the chair over, " said the nurse.
7. "..... are you going little girl?" the wolf asked.
8. "My grandmother lives in that cottage over, " said the little girl.
9. "It is so nice to see you, " said the wolf opening the cottage door.
10. "..... does it hurt?" asked the doctor.
11. "The pain is in my stomach," said the patient.
12. "..... is too much work to do here," grumbled the boy.

Write twelve sentences of your own using the words

here

there

where everywhere

Remember to start each sentence with a capital letter.

If you use direct speech remember to put speech marks around the words spoken.

The examples above will help you.

