

Nkhamenga Girls Secondary School
P. O. Box 4
Kasungu, Malawi

2nd May, 2010

Hi,
My name is Honest, am a girl of 12 years old and am going to turn 13 on 17 December this year. I was far more interested when I received your letter and I really wanted to reply.

I learn at a boarding school called Nkhamenga Girls Secondary School which is shortened as NGSS and I am in form 2. This my school is in a district known as Kasungu in central region of Malawi. But I myself come from Nkhota-kota district which is along the lake shore of Malawi and it is also in the central region. My hobbies are as follows:- reading novels (the best), watching television and films or movies, drawing (the most liked) and studying.

And guess what?

My original home district is also along the lake shore of Malawi and it is in the northern region of Malawi and commonly known as Nkhata-bay and our language of origin is Tonga. I have a pussy cat named Bushen, she is a lovely friendly kitty and I love her very much.

To talk more about Malawi, it is a very cool homeland. Although it is poor but it is somehow exciting than other countries and most of all it is a very peaceful country, and we have some beautiful features such as lake Malawi being the 3rd largest lake in Africa and ninth in the whole world.

By the way, I also like Ne-yo especially the song Miss Independent and I like Manchester United best which is seconded by your best team Chelsea.

As for now, I have got to bounce off since you know more about me and my country and ^{am} expecting to here from you soon.

Byee!!!
